NECINA Annual Meeting & Brown Rudnick Business Plan Contest Final

4:00 PM – 9:15 PM, April 28, 2007 • Royal Sonesta Hotel, Cambridge, MA

Highlights

NECINA's 2007 Annual Meeting will present two distinguished leaders from the high-tech industry: Mr. Mark S. Lewis of EMC Corporation and Mr. Wu-Fu Chen of Acorn Campus.

Mr. Lewis is responsible for coordinating and integrating EMC's development efforts across the company's platforms, software, and solutions portfolio. He also oversees the CTO Office, the Information Security initiative, Advanced Development, and EMC's involvement with industry groups and technical associations.

Mr. Chen is a renowned serial entrepreneur. One of his ventures, Cascade Communications, created over $10 billion in capitalization through its IPO in 1994. He was featured in the front page of Wall Street Journal and was chosen as one of the top-10 entrepreneurs of 2000 by Red Herring.

This year's annual meeting will also open to the public the finalist presentations of the Brown Rudnick Business Plan Contest. This is the 3rd business contest hosted by NECINA and sponsored by prestigious VC and professional service firms.

The Annual Meeting will invite NECINA's partner associations such as MTLC, NHHTC, Mass government officials, local company executives, and executives from several hi-tech industrial parks in China. Come and join us for a great networking night.
